Please also pay attention that each National Member Association has to send not later than two weeks before each IISHF Title Event the completed and approved International Team Certificate (ITC) of all its teams to the IISHF ITC Manager (itc@iishf.com)

5. Future handling for coverage of IISHF Title Events in regards to GDPR

The IISHF Presidium has decided the following procedure in regards to GDPR for the handling and publishing of game sheets, results, statistics, livestreaming, general news coverage and all star team nominations for the remaining IISHF Title Events 2018.

- 1) All team managers will received a list of their players based on the ITC delivered to IISHF of their players participating at the IISHF Title Event together with a document stating the publication that IISHF will do from the IISHF Title Events in regards to the GDPR.
- 2) Each player will have to sign the document and give their consent to the usage of the information.
- 3) Each player has the right to say no to any publication and will then be informed about the consequences of that decision.
- 4) The signed document has to be returned latest at the Managers Meeting.

Please note that delivery of Team Information and ITC's for each team participating in IISHF Title Events is already given as described in the IISHF Regulations.

6. IISHF Title Event Applications for 2019
